++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Showers easing to a clear night.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers largely fading during the evening to leave a dry and mild night with plenty of clear spells. There remains the risk of fog patches developing over hills. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
A dry and bright start but perhaps cloudier toward coasts. Heavy thundery showers then likely developing by late morning, continuing into the evening. Generally less warm. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Perhaps wet to start Wednesday but otherwise more changeable and breezy through this period, with a mixture of sunshine and showers, some heavy and thundery. Temperatures lower than recently.
